

Worship Ministries At
All Saints Episcopal Church
Parma, Ohio

Acolytes carry the cross or the torches in procession and serve as needed for the Sunday Eucharist and for special services.

Contact – Debbie Wakefield

Eucharistic Ministers assist the priest in administering the Sacrament of Holy Communion and read Holy Scripture.

Contact – the Rector

Lectors read Holy Scripture and lead the Prayers of the People.

Contact – Wendy Ott

Ushers assist worshipers as they enter, collect the offering, watch out for the children in the nursery and classrooms during services.

Contact – Gil Fritzsche

Greeters welcome worshipers as they come in.

Contact – Sally Catalano

Altar Guild members prepare the church for each season of the church year and set up the altar for communion. They bake communion bread for the 10:30 Eucharist.

Contact – Jan Fritzsche

Choir members lead our singing at worship. They rehearse Thursday evenings at 7:00 p.m. and provide special music at the 10:30 service.

Contact – Kirk Rich, Organist/Choirmaster

Children's Bell Choir includes all children who wish to participate. The bells are colored and the children respond to cards, ringing when their color appears. The choir offers special music several times during the year.

Contact – Curt Smock

Additional volunteers are needed for all aspects of worship. We need YOU! Volunteer now.